THEME: DISRUPTION

ISEA2015 re-examines the frontiers between academia and the art world, practice and theory, systems and reality, and art and society. Explore the potential of electronic arts to reach out into the world and effect genuine change.

ARTISTIC PROGRAMME

Dance with light. Knit with machines. Watch inanimate objects tell their own stories. Experience art with your skin. Reinvent a city as you walk through its streets. Art has never been this exciting.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMME

Hundreds of artists and academics from around the globe have delivered a deep and diverse peer-reviewed program that showcases the disruptive nature of electronic arts. Experience some of the most ground-breaking discussions, research, and projects in digital art.
